OC Assistance Request
No. 83-14

AGENCY ASSISTANCE TO OTHER GOVERNMENT COMPONENTS

DIRECTORATE: Administration

COMPONENT: Office of Communications

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY AND THE ASSISTANCE REQUESTED:

The National Security Agency, Division A-6, has requested the temporary loan of three KY-71 secure voice systems for use between their Headquarters building and the U. S. Navy. Their efforts to locate secure voice equipment to satisfy their needs have been unsuccessful due to a shortage of secure voice equipment. At the present time classified discussions with the U. S. Navy and concerned contractor elements requires a trip to the NSA locations.

This request can be satisfied by transferring three KY-71 systems from Central Intelligence Agency to the National Security Agency on a temporary loan basis.

ANTICIPATED DURATION AND FREQUENCY OF ASSISTANCE:

This will be a one time loan of KY-71 equipment for a seven month period.

ALL ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN THE ACTIVITY:

The Central Intelligence Agency's Office of Communications and the National Security Agency, A-6.

RATIONALE FOR THE ACTIVITY AND THE ASSISTANCE:

The Central Intelligence Agency has a sufficient quantity of KY-71 equipment to satisfy the temporary loan of three to the National Security Agency. The ability of the National Security Agency, A-6, to communicate securely with the U. S. Navy and concerned contractor elements with regards to a highly sensitive project is desirable.
